Crisp-lined and chic, the Collins collection achieves its metropolitan look through an array of smart contrasts: dark on light, sheen on matte, round on square. We set precisely fabricated metalwork against rich cocoa wood, allowing each to enhance the appeal of the other. Textiles soften the fixtures' modern edges, while pinstripe detailing on the shades reinforce their linear dimensions. White cloth wiring within transparent glass candle sleeves nods to the 20th century roots of a collection that embodies the current ethos of clean form and comfortable finish.
